§ 35-1. Title.

The law shall be entitled, "A Local Law Abolishing the Elective Office of Receiver of Taxes for the Town of Conklin."

§ 35-2. Declaration of policy.

It is estimated that the Town of Conklin would realize at least $10,000 in annual costs if the duties of Receiver of Taxes were contracted out to a third party. The same essential services would be provided to taxpayers. Consolidation of services among municipalities is critical to maintaining manageable budgets.

§ 35-3. Effect on position.

- A. The Office of Receiver of Taxes of the Town of Conklin, as provided for in New York State Town Law § 20(1)(a) and any other provision of applicable law, is hereby abolished, effective as of the expiration of the term of office of the incumbent, or December 31, 2004.
- B. After the effective date of this local law, there shall be no election held for the office of Receiver of Taxes of the Town of Conklin.
- C. Upon abolition of the position of Receiver of Taxes, the duties and responsibilities of that position shall be assigned to such persons or entities as the Town Board of the Town of Conklin shall designate by resolution.

§ 35-4. Statutory authority.

This chapter is hereby adopted pursuant to the provisions of §§ 20 and 23 of the Municipal Home Rule Law wherein a local law may be adopted changing the provisions of any nongeneral law.
